

Physical Readiness Information Management System (PRIMS)

Objectives

- Provide PRIMS training resources
- Provide a basic overview of PRIMS capabilities
- Discuss CFL responsibilities
- Discuss record correction procedures

PRIMS

- Official PFA reporting system
- Legal
- Supersedes other documents
 - EVALs/FITREPs
- All data entries are traceable and auditable
 - The CFL is responsible for all data entered under their name

PRIMS Tracking Capabilities

- PFA data
- PFA failure data
- Medical
 - PHA and PARFQ
 - Waivers
- FEP data
 - BCA and mock PFA progress
- Nutrition
- Command vs Navy trends

CFL Responsibilities

- Submit CFL designation letter with certificate to OPNAV to gain PRIMS access
- CFL grants ACFL access and read only access to CO/XO/CMC and other command members as designated in writing by the CO
- Enter PFA data within 30 days of command cycle completion
- Maintain integrity of PRIMS (records are reviewed and audited)
- Submit letters of correction with supporting documentation
- Maintain all records (rosters/score sheets, FEP, medical waiver forms, PARFQ's and any other supporting documentation) for at least 5 years

Learning PRIMS

- You will need to take time to familiarize yourself with PRIMS to learn how to navigate
- PRIMS v4 CFL User Guide available on the Physical Readiness Program and PRIMS websites
- Recommend train-the-trainer with more experienced CFL/ACFL
- DO NOT use the actual PRIMS site to practice with unofficial data

Welcome back to PRIMS! - PLEASE READ THIS PAGE BEFORE PROCEEDING!

1 November 2013. The PRIMS reports are working correctly.

08 October 2013. We have tested new programming that will allow CFLs and ACFLs to input PFA data in accordance with the new 45-day policy. These improvements have not yet been deployed. Please hold all data input for members who have tested under the new rules and outside of the 10- or 31-day limitation. We will post a notice here once the deployment is complete.

Guidance for New Accession PHAs: The due dates of the PHA in PRIMS limits their access to a PARFQ when in many cases they are exempt from doing the PHA per SECNAVINST 6120.3. Please use the following guidance when processing any New Accession that does not have a PHA entered into PRIMS and is exempt per this reference. "Individuals who are newly accessioned are not required to complete a PHA per SECNAVINST 6120.3. Nevertheless, all new accessions will need to

FEP and Nutrition

FEP Records

- Automatically enrolls members who fail PFA or outside Age-adjusted body fat standards
- Must manually enter others
- Must dis-enroll members once FEP requirements are met
- Must enter monthly mock PFA data and Nutrition program attendance

Excel Spreadsheet

Excel Spreadsheet

- Not recommended, but it can be useful for commands with limited internet access
 - Once the command has a good internet connection, it can be downloaded and uploaded to the database
- Available only to CFLs at the UIC level
- The spreadsheet cannot be manipulated in any way
- Medical waivers cannot be entered on the spreadsheet - Anyone with a medical waiver will have to have their data entered directly in PRIMIS
- Items are coded in the spreadsheet
- Not an official document – you must maintain paper copies

Reports, Notes, & Record Corrections

Command Screen Reports and Member Reports

- Help manage your program
- Track PFA data to assist with admin responsibilities
- Create reports to provide to leadership
 - Assist with medical screening compliance
 - Show FEP progress
 - Compare command against Navy

Notes

- All members need a PFA record for each cycle, even for non-participation (DEP/OP, TAD, etc.)
- If a member does not complete the run or swim cardio portion of the test and does not incur a medical waiver, record “5959” as the cardio time
- If a member does not finish the bike cardio option, record “20” in PRIMS
- For high altitude or USMC PFA, select option in standard block.
 - USMC will be recorded in PRIMS as USMC Pass - Scores cannot be entered

Notes, cont.

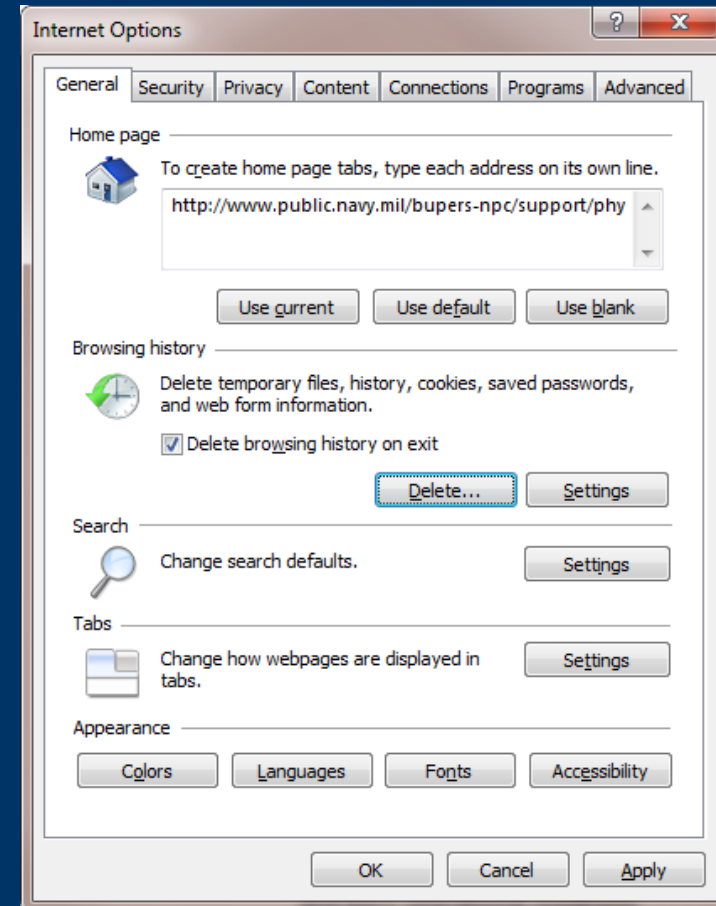

- Members not participating in the PFA without authorization are recorded as UA
 - Do Not enter scores or data to “make” them fail
- Pregnant service women are excused from the PFA from the date they are confirmed as being pregnant - It is not a medical waiver - There is a “pregnant” status option for this situation

Record Corrections

- Timeline
 - Current cycle → CFL
 - Current command → LOC
- LOC must be in correct format, signed by CO, not CFL
 - Comes from the command at fault
- LOC / BCNR if previous command
- All templates located on PRIMS website under Help

Troubleshooting: PRIMS Database Errors

- Delete Temporary Internet Files and Cookies
- Close all Explorer windows, then log out and back in
- If these actions do not help, contact the PRIMS Help Desk

Troubleshooting: Letters of Corrections

- For LOCs for PFAs from previous cycles, the Physical Readiness Program office requires:
 - Original PFA rosters to change PFA results
 - Supporting documentation for medical waivers
- Remember you are required to maintain PFA records for five years

Troubleshooting:

Number of CFLs & Medical Waivers

- Number of CFLs
 - Only one CFL per command is allowed
 - Submit CFL designation letter to gain access to PRIMS and prevent a CFL from being inadvertently removed from PRIMS
- Medical Waivers
 - Enter medical waivers first
 - Then edit the PFA record to enter the rest of the PFA information

Troubleshooting: Command Screen

- Keep the information on the Command screen current!
- Gaining CFLs must rely on the Command screen to obtain CFL information in order to import new check-ins, if they have not been released

Troubleshooting:

Physical Readiness Program Office Requests

- Please submit requests only once to PRIMS@navy.mil
- The office is receiving duplicate requests which slows process down!
- This creates a duplication of effort when multiple staff members are working on the same request

- PRIMS Manager
- PRIMS Assistant Manager
