1. Background. A ship's recreation fund is a Nonappropriated Fund (NAF) of the United States government which is tax exempt from federal, state and local taxes. The tax exempt status of each fund is established by an Employer Identification Number (EIN) issued by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). The terms "EIN" and Taxpayer Identification Number "TIN" are synonymous.

2. Discussion. Per enclosure (1), the IRS has issued a single EIN, 62-1744056, to Commander, Navy Installations Command (CNIC) for use only by Afloat Navy Commands designated "United States Ship" (USS) and "Littoral Combat Ship" (LCS) Crews. Subject EIN number may only be used for shipboard recreation funds; it may not be used by any other shipboard entity.

3. Action. Financial Institutions holding ships recreation funds should be notified in writing per enclosure (2). All Afloat Navy Commands with the designation "USS" are required to use EIN 62-1744056 on all purchase orders and checks. Checks should include the following information:

Recreation Fund, USS _____
Federal ID Number 62-1744056
